The Chartered Project Professional (ChPP) standard demonstrates the attainment of a defined level of technical knowledge, professional practice and ethical behaviour. Proving exceptional project capabilities.

Overview

The Chartered Project Professional Standard is a professional benchmark that demonstrates attainment of a defined level of technical knowledge, professional practice and ethical behaviour and forms the basis of the assessment that applicants must pass to gain Chartered Project Professional (ChPP) status.

Who should attend?

To apply for chartered status, individuals must be professionally active and meet the following criteria:

- Proven experience in delivering projects, programmes, portfolios, or key control/enabling functions.
- Up-to-date knowledge of current practices and methods.
- Active involvement in the project management profession.

If the evidence provided is older than five years, a currency statement is required to demonstrate how you continue to meet these criteria.

You do not need to be an APM member to apply.
