Master skills to become an effective team member involved in organisational change projects.

Overview

The APMG Change Management certification is developed in partnership with the Change Management Institute, and is designed to help organisations and their people manage the impact of change. The foundation certificate explores how change affects, and is affected by, individuals, teams, change leaders, and organisations.

Who Should Attend?

APMG Change Management Foundation is for any individual or team interested in understanding the basic principles of achieving successful organisational change, transition or transformation. It is also for professionals pursuing the Change Management Practitioner certificate, for which the Change Management Foundation certificate is a pre-requisite.

Course Content

The programme will cover the following topics:

- Structured approaches you can use to shape a change initiative.
- How to 'read' the organisational context for change.
- Human responses to change and techniques to help people adapt.
- Sources of resistance to change and ways to work effectively with these.
- Factors affecting people's motivation during changes and how to encourage support for change initiatives.
- How teams can facilitate successful organisational change and how line leaders, sponsors, change managers and change agents can best work together.
- How to identify stakeholders and engage effectively with them.
- Essential communication principles to support change initiatives.
- Ways to assess change impacts across the organisation.
- How to select and effectively utilise key metrics for evaluating change.

Virtual Classroom Delivery

This 3-day virtual classroom course is a fully immersive and interactive experience. Each day, a single session spanning from 9 am to 5 pm ensures focused learning. Taught by a fully qualified facilitator, it will equip learners with the tools they need to increase the chances of project success.
